PERSONAL STATEMENT

I am a decorated air veteran, on an unwavering journey of 26½ yrs. of prolific & glorious service in the Indian Air Force. Originating from Gorakhpur (UP), I have been peripatetic all this while to National and International Airbases. Being an agile learner, eloquent orator, avid reader, and skilled counselor with versatile writing skills, I am inveterate of extensive working hours. My upbringing in the defence background as a child and as an adult inculcates the testimony of punctuality, rectitude, dedication, and discipline. I am, therefore, inquisitive and keen to explore how my academic, professional, and technical assets will elicit my fervor of endurance in the corporate world as well. I look forward to the challenges that ensue with my decision to continue the eternal learning process.
