Arpita Biradar

SUMMARY

Passionate about Finance and Management, I seek to leverage my expertise to drive organizational growth. Adaptable and skilled, I've honed my abilities through hands-on experiences. As a former Business Consultant at iDECK, I orchestrated a PPP-modeled urban project, constructing intricate financial models, fund allocation processes, and robust risk evaluations. My role as a Portfolio Manager at Finlatics underscored my proficiency in stock assessment and portfolio optimization. My earlier stint as a Software Engineer at Cognizant saw me collaborating with prestigious clients like Lloyds Banking Group and JP Morgan, crafting tailor-made solutions. Armed with an MBA in Finance from Christ University, I am well-equipped to navigate the complexities of financial landscapes
