PROJECT: A STUDY ON ANALYZING EMPLOYEE JOB SATISFACTION

Here I have studied about Employee Job Satisfaction where it is closely linked with the attitudes and feelings they have with their work. The study investigated the relationship between levels of Job satisfaction with gender, age, compensation, experience, degree attainment, and school size.

- The study includes primary data collected through personal interviews and questionnaires and relate to the rate of pay, variety of tasks, work responsibilities, promotional opportunities, and the work itself

Below are the few of many Findings:

- The creation of Job satisfaction among the employees continues to be a challenge for many human resource executives.
- The employees feel that the creative aspect of achieving satisfaction has been increasing.

Strength

- Dedication towards the work.
- Willingness to learn,
- Analytical skills,
- Negotiation skills.

Hobbies

- Travelling
- Drawing
- Photography
- Sports
