About Me

A Motivated and eager individual, known for my dedication, reliability, and strong work ethic. With a mature approach, I thrive in teamwork and adapt quickly to challenges. Whether collaborating or working independently, I excel. I remain composed under pressure, consistently meeting deadlines.

Professional Experience

AdaptIQ | JUNIOR ASSOCIATE DEVELOPER INTERN

Feb – Aug 2023

- Acquired a solid foundation in Salesforce technologies, including Apex, Lightning Web Components, Process Builder, Workflow Rules, Flow, and SOQL, through an immersive training program.
- Demonstrated proactive engagement in learning, consistently delving into Salesforce resources such as Trailhead modules to expand and reinforce acquired skills.
- Collaborated with peers on hands-on projects, collectively tackling challenges and iteratively refining solutions, fostering an environment of mutual support and shared success.
- During my internship, I had the opportunity to develop two distinct projects: a timesheet application and an e-commerce website.

Personal Projects

- IOT device for Monitoring and Recording Orthotic leg metrics
Developed an IOT device for continuously monitoring the foot pressure and acceleration in the Orthotic leg of patients and storage of leg metrics in cloud for future use by Orthotists.
- Phone silencing App based on Location
An Android Application for automatic profile switching will provide completely automated profile switching. This application will enable the device to switch to silent mode based on the data stored by users in the database as per their requirements
- Social Distancing Detector
A device in which temperature of the user is checked by temperature sensor and distance from the user and the surrounding is measured by IR sensor.
